"To Know Christ and to Make Him Known"

A Message From Pastor

Signs, signs, everywhere there are signs. As I drive around the area, I notice all the new electronic signs. Especially I notice the church signs. Are the electronic messages readable as I drive by? What news do they share?

Eventually (as I write in mid-April), our new sign will be finished and operating. The new sign will announce to our neighbors that the funny looking building here is a church; especially it will say that it is a Lutheran Church. The electronic part of the sign will share worship and education times. It will announce special events. It will be our voice as people drive by.

It may be tempting to believe that we don't need to use some traditional communication methods any more. But that's not true. The sign is only one way in which we will get the message of Hope to others. We will still want to make and place flyers in local stores and to our friends.

We will continue to benefit from the little "Burma Shave" signs.

Above all, we will need to continue to share the events of Hope with our friends and neighbors face to face as we have always done.

And we will still need to let everyone know how much God loves and forgives them, face to face, as we have always done.

In HOPE

Martyr Moments

ERIK, KING OF SWEDEN
MAY 17, 1160

Eric 1X Jedvardsson was a ruler of much of Sweden from 1150-1160. He was the head of a Christian kingdom with nearby pagan kingdoms, all sharing an old tradition of fighting. Around 1155 he headed an expedition into Finland, then loosely under Swedish rule, to consolidate Swedish authority there and to establish a protected Christian mission, headed by Henry of Uppsala, now considered the founder of the Church in Finland. Erik is also known for undertaking to provide Sweden with fair laws and fair courts, and for measures designed to assist the poor and the infirm. As he was in church on May 18, 1160, the day after Ascension Day, he was told that a pagan Danish army was approaching to kill him. As he was leaving the church the pagans rushed upon him and killed him.

Within 30 years of his death his name appeared on the Swedish calendar and he is accounted the principal patron of Sweden. The silver casket with his remains still rests in the cathedral at Uppsala.

Our faith is built upon those that have gone before us. Praise be to the Lord!

Critic's Corner

Killing Patton by Bill O'Reilly and Martin Dugard

After seeing the title I realized that I knew very little or next to nothing about General George Patton. The book told me that he died under mysterious circumstances in the months following the end of World War II. For almost 70 years, there has been suspicions that his death was not an accident-and may very well have been an act of assassination. This book considers the myriad parties that benefited from his untimely death, from Joseph Stalin to an American spy looking to remain cozy with the Soviet Union to Rommel being forced to commit suicide on direct orders from Adolph Hitler.

I found this book readable and very interesting with facts that explain and hint at political circumstances of present day.

Critic: Diane Kahler

The congregation is encouraged to participate in the Critic's Corner with books and movies.

New Wisdom Seekers course: Explaining All The Scary Stuff In REVELATION

Four Wednesdays in May at 10am in Classroom 2. The course will feature a video presentation and discussion about the video. Facilitated by Pastor Lynn

This is not a verse by verse study, but one with a specific purpose, to invite us to consider the good news found in Revelation. The four lessons include: 1) Revelation 6, The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse; 2) Revelation 17, The Great Prostitute; 3) Revelation 19, The Rider on the White Horse; and 4) Revelation 21, A New Heaven and a New Earth.

If you haven't joined us before, consider participating in this short study of the book of Revelation produced by Lutheran Hour speaker Rev. Ken Klaus, and part of The Lutheran Hour Ministry Men's Network.

Explaining All The Scary Stuff In REVELATION

featuring The Rev. Ken Klaus, Speaker of The Lutheran Hour

In 96 A.D. a miraculous thing happened on a rocky, desolate, six-by-ten-mile island in the Aegean. The apostle John was walking alongside the ocean when the majestic voice of God spoke from heaven bringing a message of cheer to believers who had been struggling with the harsh burden of persecution from the Roman Emperor Domitian. The old disciple looked heavenward to see the clouds part and God revealing an amazing vision of His plan for the Church through the ages.

Unfortunately through the years Revelation has come to be seen as a scary book filled with confusing and even terrifying things. So join us as we talk about that scary stuff, and learn that God didn't give us Revelation to terrify us- but to reassure us.

As you study Revelation, you will discover the following things:

- God has a plan for and is in control of His creation.
- He knows His people will suffer.
- He encourages us to focus on Jesus.
- He assures us of a final victory over evil.
- He says the faithful already share victory in Jesus.
- He says death in Jesus is not disgrace, but victory.

Jacob's Journey

Jacob's Journey will finish up with our classes by the beginning of May. We plan to resume in the fall with the final leg of our wonderful long journey through the Bible with the last book, the study of Revelation.

All the different threads of the Bible come together at the end, that is why this book promises a blessing to all who read and study it; therefore, we invite all in our church family to come and learn with us some of the secrets which are revealed on the pages of this ancient message. We expect to resume classes in the fall and we look forward to that promised blessing that is ours as we read and study this fascinating book.

Enjoy a blessed summer and keep on studying the Word.

Maranatha! Anita O'Donnell

From the Quilters Corner

We would like to thank Joyce Davis for all of her hard work that she did with the Quilting Group during the last several months!

Last month we published a list of people who are working with the quilts currently and inadvertently left her off that list.

Thank you again to Joyce and all of the members of the Quilting Group who do such a great job.

Pillowcase Dresses

We are asking for the following items to make pillowcase dresses:

- ♦ Wide rick-rack or lace
- ♦ Pillowcases (any size)
- ♦ Half-inch, double-fold bias tape

Following some simple steps, any size new or gently used pillowcase can be quickly turned into a prized possession for a grateful little girl in Africa.

These dresses are then packed into the shoeboxes for the Operation Christmas Child drive.

Please see Pat Kessel if you have any of the above items to donate for this project.

Did You Ever Wonder...?

Did you ever wonder where the Doxology came from?

Before Charles Wesley or Isaac Watts, there was Thomas Ken who has been called "England's first hymnist". He was born in 1637 in Little Berkhamstead on the fringes of greater London. When his parent died, he was raised by his half-sister and her husband who enrolled him in Winchester College, an historic boys' school. Thomas was later ordained to the ministry and returned to Winchester as a chaplain.

To encourage the devotional habits of the boys, Thomas wrote three hymns in 1674. This was revolutionary because English hymns had not yet appeared. Only the Psalms were sung in public worship. Ken suggested the boys use the hymns privately in their rooms.

One hymn was to be sung upon waking, another at bedtime and a third at midnight if sleep did come. His morning hymn had 13 stanzas, beginning with:

Awake my soul, and with the sun thy daily stage of duty run;

Shake off dull sloth and joyful rise, to pay thy morning sacrifice.

His evening hymn, equally meaningful, included this verse:

*All praise to Thee, my God, this night,
for all the blessing of the light!*

Keep me, O keep me, King of kings, beneath Thine own almighty wings.

All three hymns ended with a common stanza, which has since become the most widely-sung verse in the world.

*Praise God, from Whom all blessing flow;/Praise Him, all creatures
here below;/
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;/Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.*

In 1680, Thomas was appointed chaplain to England's King Charles II. It was a thankless job, as Charles kept a variety of mistresses. During the reign of the next king, James II, Thomas, by now a bishop, was sent to the Tower of London for his Protestant convictions. After his release, Thomas retired to the home of a wealthy friend where he died on March 11, 1711. He was buried at sunrise, and the Doxology was sung at his funeral.
